Presentation

We, in behalf of the yearbook staff, present the '58 Cougar. Starting with the forming of our staff in May 1957, the long process of production had its birth. The groundwork was laid during frequent meetings in the summer. Slowly it began to take shape. First, different areas of work were assigned to the staff members. The cumulation of ideas was placed on paper, and write-ups began. By this time the new school year had begun and our efforts were doubled. Picture scheduling, writing, and correcting articles occupied most of the staff's time throughout the first four months. Shifting into high gear at the entrance of the new year, we formulated every minute detail in a "dummy." All articles were proofread again. After the printing on good paper, the articles were tediously fitted on the paste-up boards. From there it left our hands. This book then traveled to the publishing house for its final printing, and then to the bindery for final operations. Only after the annuals were distributed to the subscribers, was the work of the staff completed.

At this time we express our sincere thanks and appreciation to those who contributed in the production of the '58 Cougar. First to the faculty and the administration, whose co-operation and backing was indispensable. The staff also is indebted to Mary Ann Merkel and Kerry DeLong for their voluntary efforts. Without the co-operation of all mentioned plus the student body and subscribers, this, our product, would be impossible. With this, we present the '58 Cougar.

Foreword

This annual is a pictorial and literary autobiography of the 1958 Senior Class. In it the life history of this year, events preceding this year, and a few projected plans are recorded. Photographs of the upper and lower classmen determine a great portion of the book. In addition to senior portraits with a bit of extracurricular activities under each, the seniors are featured separately in the various clubs, sports, band, and chorus.

For later years the Cougar will be a source of reminiscent musing. An occasional glance at these pages will bring back the fun-filled days, the snowstorms, the Sputniks and Explorers, the basketball games, the concerts and plays and the dances. The write-ups and pictures of our teachers and buddies will serve to aid our memories when we grow old and forgetful. This book is a symbol of our achievements in high school.

Dedication

We, the seniors of 1958, dedicate this—our yearbook—to those who have endeavored to provide us with a proper basic education so vital today, our parents. They deserve our praise and respect. The unseen hand of their advice has guided us on the correct path to the threshold of adult life; but here their guidance does not cease. For the hand is always out-stretched to direct our minds, beyond mere learning. Their actions have set the example of how we should use our knowledge. Our parents' influence is the foundation upon which we can rely in trouble and need. It is therefore most fitting for us to dedicate this book, which depicts our senior year achievements, to our parents for their tireless efforts in making our senior year a success.

Administration and Faculty

A Message to the Class of 1958:

You are the first to graduate since the "space age" was ushered in through the launching of man-made satellites. This age will most certainly provide unexcelled challenges and opportunities for the educated person. It also implies the development and acceptance of changes in mankind's way of life. The knowledge gained in high school will be fundamental to a successful life in this new "space age."

In spite of many changes that will take place in your life-time, I hope you will remain adamant in maintaining certain fundamental principles as unalterable.

Among these I would have you place love of God and the necessity of Divine Guidance; truth; integrity; justice; family and home first; democratic philosophy which holds that the dignity and worth of the individual is paramount, and that governmental institutions are instigated among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

My sincere congratulations and personal good wishes go with each of you. May you find success and happiness in life. My expectations for each of you are great as you move forward to ever new and widening horizons. Your progress in life will always be my concern.

Paul C. Hunkeler

B.S., M.S., M.A.

Supervising Principal of Area Schools

A Message to the Class of 1958:

Today's challenge to you is to seek knowledge. Knowledge is elusive; it must be pursued. But it is always there, waiting. The process of learning cannot end in the classroom; it must continue through life.

Your high school has given you the tools with which to pursue knowledge. It depends on you to use these tools to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary in training for everyday living.

The past years have meant much in helping you to learn the basic principles of truth, honesty, and loyalty which must be learned to complement your education and even your very lives.

Education is not just a process by which subject matter is to be mastered, but rather various activities by which you receive training for living.

Success in life depends a great deal on how well you get along with people. Your ability to get along with others usually has direct relation to your degree of adjustment to life. Through success the utmost goal of life, happiness, is achieved. Success in the future depends on getting the most out of your high school training.

To you the Class of 1958, I extend best wishes for happiness and success.

L. Merlin Stauffer

PhB., M. Ed.

Senior High School Principal

A Message to the Class of 1958:

Though your school years are now at an end, learning for you should continue onward. The groundwork of your life's education has been laid, and I challenge you to continue to build upon it. Through further learning you will be able to live a rich and useful life. Dedicate your lives to strengthen the ideals of our democratic society and to make certain the freedoms you now enjoy are preserved for those who follow you. In this age of Sputniks and Explorers, it is you who must supply the leadership and guidance for future generations.

Establish for yourselves high ideals and goals in life and strive with determination to attain them. Respect the rights of others and be sincere in your actions toward your fellow man. Maintain the Faith, and with His guidance, life for you will be profitable.

I extend to all of you my very best wishes for future happiness and success with hope that no matter what problems you encounter, you will meet them with courage and steadfastness.

GUIDANCE

LAURA L. LANNON

As guidance counselor of our school, she informs students about colleges, scholarships, jobs after graduation, and the armed services through films and speakers. She has a B.A. from Indiana State Teachers College and an M.A. from Penn State University.

SAFETY

HAROLD L. FLEISHER

He must possess nerves of steel, considering all the promising safe drivers he trains. Conducting adult driver training classes also occupies his time. He received his B.S. from Kutztown State Teachers College.

HEALTH

MARY W. KOCH

Our school nurse has charge of the health program of KAHS and the surrounding district. From the Kutztown State Teachers College she received her B.S. and graduated from the Allentown Hospital School of Nursing.

FINE AND INDUSTRIAL ARTS

HERMAN A. MOCK

Teaching industrial art to future handy men and mechanical drawing to house planners, he is a graduate from Penn State University where he received his B.S.

NITA A. DIETRICH

Besides teaching art at the high school and at the elementary building, she is the Senior Tri-Hi-Y club adviser. She received her B.S. from the Kutztown State Teachers College.

JOHN F. DREIBELBIS

Not only does he teach art and head the department but he enjoys working with his hands to make jewelry, mosaics, and leather articles. He received his M.A. from Columbia University and his B.S. from Kutztown State Teachers College.

HISTORY

JOHN S. DAVIES

"Why is it?" this familiar expression of his is used most frequently while discussing current events, a vital part of Mr. Davies instruction in Problems of Democracy. With this question he usually starts us thinking and sometimes debating. He earned his A.B. at Gettysburg College.

ANDREE B. GOLDMAN

One of the newer members of the teaching profession, she now teaches history in the junior high school building. Mrs. Goldman graduated from Albright College where she earned her B.A.

RALPH B. SHANKWEILER

He was our eighth, ninth, and tenth grade history teacher. Once he found upon his desk some nice, shiny red apples (we put them there). Mr. Shankweiler is a graduate of Kutztown State Teachers College where he earned his B.S. He received his M.S. from the University of Pennsylvania.

RICHARD C. GOUGLER

"A word to the wise is sufficient" is the favorite comment of this mathematics teachers. One of his interests is dramatics, particularly the writing, producing, and directing of plays. By the way, he is the director of this year's "One Foot in Heaven." He graduated from Muhlenberg College, receiving his A.B. He is also head of the department.

CHARLES E. TRAFFORD

This young man who received his B.S. from Kutztown State Teachers College, teaches mathematics to junior high students. At present he is working for his Master's degree at Temple University.

J. RICHARD WAGNER

Besides being a mathematics teacher, an ardent music lover, and an admirer of Bach, he is also an excellent pianist. Mr. Wagner received his B.S. in Education from Bloomsburg State Teachers College.

MATHEMATICS

INSTRUMENTAL

AND

VOCAL MUSIC

JOSEPH S. HOOVER, JR.

As director of vocal music, he conducts the high school chorus and teaches music to junior high students. He is also a member of the Bach Choir. A graduate of West Chester State Teachers College, he has a B.S. in Music Education and a M.Ed. from Penn State University.

WILLIAM S. MOYER

"I have more life than all of you combined." This is a declaration of our leader during a band rehearsal. The fine job that Willy—as he is known by us—does in directing our high school band is recognized throughout the county. He is head of the department and has a B.S. from West Chester State Teachers College. He always enjoys those band "blowouts."

SARA K. SAUL

As girls athletic coach and health teacher, she advises our cheerleaders. Besides receiving her B.S. from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, she attended the Kutztown State Teachers College.

JOHN SILAN

The boys athletic coach, who trains our fine basketball teams and teaches the boys health, received his B.S. from Penn State University and his M.S. from Bucknell University. He is also the head of the department.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND HEALTH

SCIENCE

NORWOOD P. LAWFER

This young science teacher is now teaching science in the junior high school. Mr. Lawfer graduated from Kutztown State Teachers College where he received his B.S. degree.

FRANK L. KEIM

All those "fish" stories he told us in biology class were very interesting biologically and otherwise. In chemistry class there were times he probably wished to be back in biology. Department head and director of activities, he received his B.S. from Penn State University.

JOHN E. ROHRBACH

This science teacher, a former Cougar editor, now teaches science to senior high students. He received his B.S. degree from Kutztown State Teachers College.

CHARLES Z. ANGSTADT

He taught us American history in eleventh grade and is now trying to teach us physics. Because he is interested in starting students in physics careers, he conducts Thursday night classes. His B.S. he received from Kutztown State Teachers College and his M.A. from Lehigh University.

HOWARD J. DIETRICH

"Get quiet!" The Commercial section knows this expression all too well. As head of the commercial department he teaches math and bookkeeping. He received his B.S.C. from Temple University. Mr. Dietrich also attended Kutztown State Teachers College.

JEAN A. P. HELD

"Hands on home row" is a familiar statement heard in the typing room where hesitant fingers pound the keys. A graduate of Temple University, she received her B.S. in Business Education and her M.A. of education from Lehigh.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

ENGLISH AND FOREIGN LANGUAGES

NEVIN J. LUCKENBILL

"The test tomorrow will be relatively simple. Just study." Our Spanish, German, and Latin teacher usually finds a ready audience for his interesting stories about Germany and his trip there. As a supplement to his education at Albright College where he earned his B.A., he attended the University of Berlin.

LEONA J. TYSON

The adviser of the Ku-Hi-Nu staff, Mrs. Tyson was our English teacher when we were sophomores and juniors. An authority on Shakespeare and Dickens, she received an A.B. from Indiana University and an M.A. from the University of Michigan.

HAROLD L. HEHR

"Good enough," coming from room 216 is only Mr. Hehr's acceptance of an English student's theme or some other work. We wonder if he kept a vocabulary notebook? He is head of the department and teaches English to eleventh and twelfth grades. Besides these duties he is the adviser for the Cougar staff. Mr. Hehr received his B.S. from the Kutztown State Teachers College and his M.A. from Columbia University.

MARY W. DOLAN

Our librarian, who tries to maintain a quiet library and sometimes succeeds, graduated from Kutztown State Teachers College with a B.S. Her work demands understanding of young readers' interests and keeping available information for teachers.

VIOLA S. BEEKEY

With her able assistance we presented the Thanksgiving assembly, in which we gave the stage its first cranberry bath. In addition to receiving her A.B. from Ursinus College, she attended Penn State University and the University of Pennsylvania.

MARIE R. STAUFFER

She teaches English to sections of eighth and ninth grades and tenth commercial in the junior high building. Reading is one of her favorite pastimes. She received her B.A. from Gettysburg College.

ENGLISH

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

JACK W. SCHONELY

One of our vocational agricultural teachers, Mr. Schonely finds time to referee basketball games. He graduated from Penn State University with a B.S. and served as a paratrooper in the service. One of our eleventh grade class deans, he enjoyed working at Italian sandwich sales with us.

SHIRLEY M. LABE

As head of the home economics department, Miss Labe teaches homemaking to aspiring housekeepers and finds time to conduct adult evening classes. She received her B.S. from Carnegie Institute of Technology and attended Penn State University.

EVELYN M. TREXLER

Another home economics teacher, she teaches sewing and cooking to seventh and eighth graders. Mrs. Trexler received her B.S. from Albright College.

KENNETH W. STAVER

"You dang guy." Whenever this phrase is heard in the Ag. shop, the boys know that Mr. Staver is nearby. Now head of the agricultural vocational department, he received his B.S. from Penn State University and Lehigh University.

To the administration, the faculty, the students, and the friends of Kutztown Area High School—to you, we, the graduating class of 1958, render our farewell. These past years at our Alma Mater have greatly influenced our character, our understanding, and our ideas.

To our faculty for the firm professional training they have given us, to our student body for the wholesome association they have shared with us, to our friends who have helped make our events successful, and to our administration which has made possible all these benefits—to our Alma Mater—we offer everlasting thanks.

We, the class of 1958, bid an affectionate farewell to our Alma Mater as our commencement ushers us into a wide world of realism.

What Class?

We entered the classroom
By three's and by four's;
There were marks on the desk tops
And stains on the floors.

The teacher spoke quickly,
"We must cover ground,
No loafing or sleeping
And don't fool around."

We learned of the air,
And we learned about pressure;
Did we enjoy work?
Well, this was no pleasure.

We talked about light;
We talked about heat;
Who said school was easy?
This work's got me beat.

Cohesion, Adhesion,
Molecules, too;
Then off on a tangent,
We spoke of the flu.

We learned how to think,
To use imagination;
We must carry on;
This is our generation.

What subject is taught here—
This room with stains on the floors?
Why it's one of the sciences,
Physics, of course.

We made fun of physics;
This we cannot deny;
But the facts we all learned
Will remain till we die.

Do You Know?

That it would take 4309 BB's to break every window pane in the high school?

That each of you spent 14,400 hours in twelve years of school?

864,000 minutes

51,840,000 seconds

That each of you took 252 hours to change classes during your four years at KAHS?

That each of you spent 1080 hours eating your lunch during four years at KAHS?

That each of you used 113 tablets during those twelve years?

That each of you used 113 pencils, equivalent in length to about 23 $\frac{13}{24}$ yards?

That out-of-town pupils spent from 120 hours to 1320 hours going to and from school while traveling from 4320 to 97,200 miles during their four years at KAHS?

That town students spent from 72 hours to 360 hours going to and from school traveling from 144 to 1440 miles during their last four years at KAHS?

That you spent 4200 hours in the classroom during those four years?

That you spent 53 $\frac{1}{3}$ hours having devotions at KAHS?

That there are 487 lockers in your school?

That in your class:

74.70% have brown hair

13.25% have black hair

10.85% have blonde hair

1.20% have red hair

100.00%

That in your class:

36.15% have blue eyes

34.94% have brown eyes

18.08% have green eyes

8.42% have hazel eyes

2.41% have gray eyes

100.00%

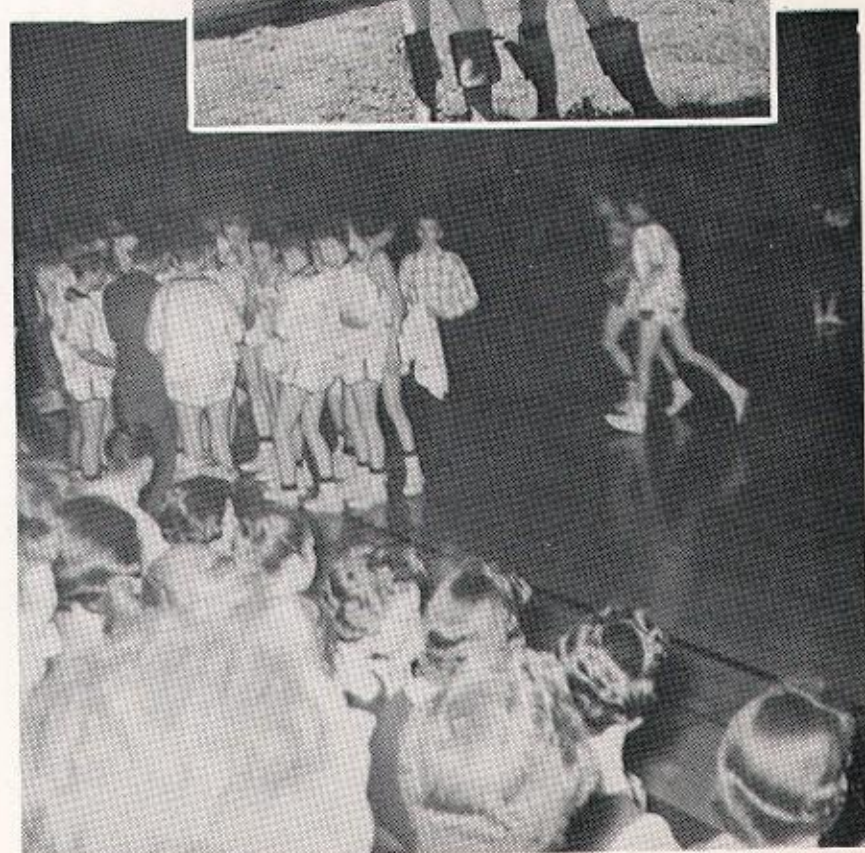

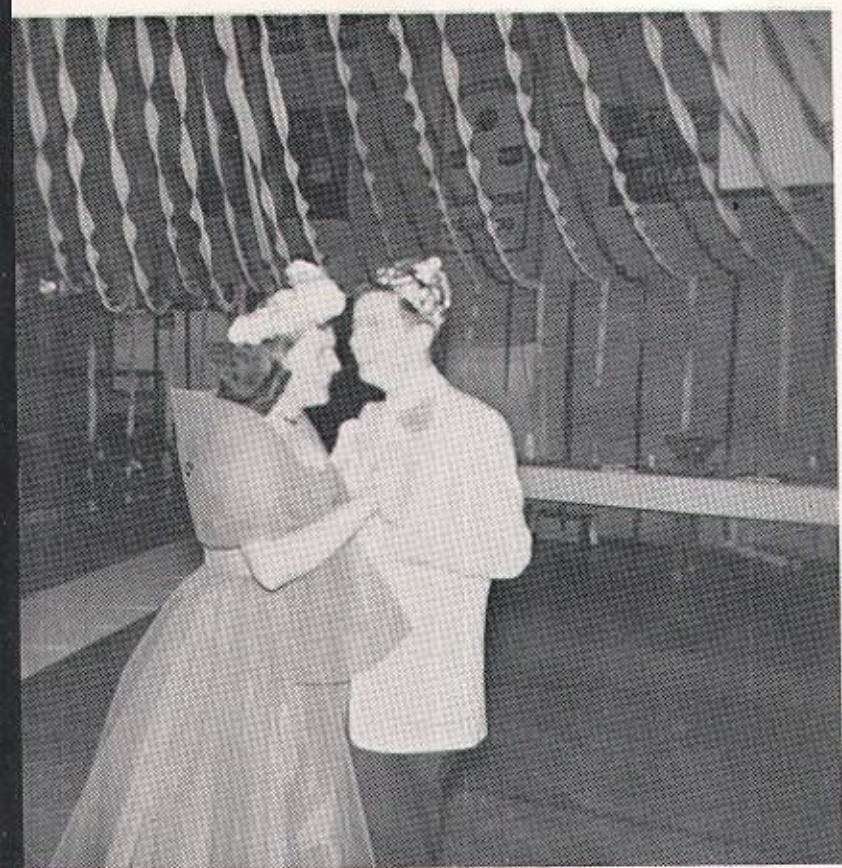

That 25.3% of your classmates wear glasses?

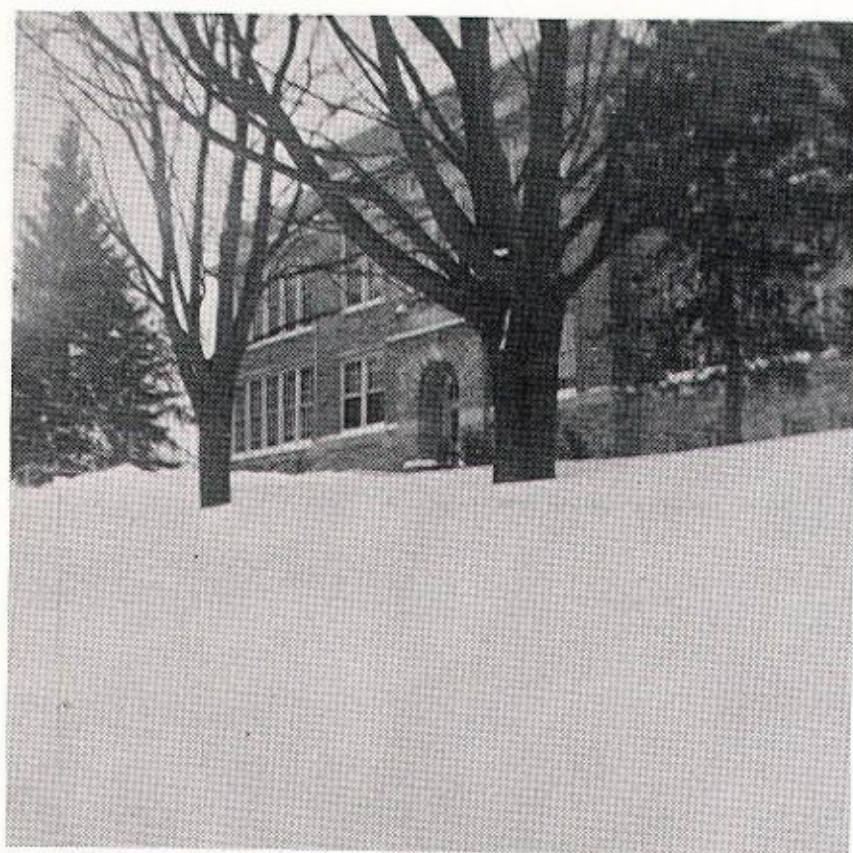

That 43.2% of the class is girls while the other 56.79% is boys?

What is the remaining .01%?

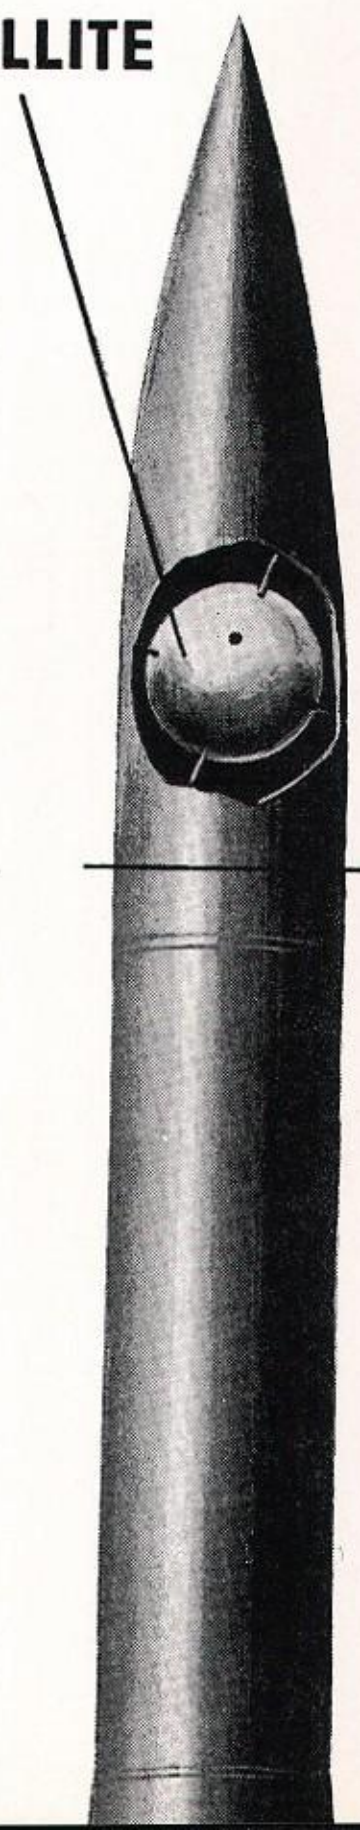

Remember When?

Diane's slacks ripped at a basketball game.
The senior boys did the hokey pokey in BAA.
Sten Gibson sang in the chorus at the Easter Assembly.
"Officer" Johnson said, "Who's the driver of that car?"
Werley, Keller, and Heckman came to school on time.
Sten had to go home from Latin Class to change his pants.
Some vocational girls sat on Mr. Davies' cupcakes
Someone seasoned the typewriters with pepper.
Barbara Spears put Mr. Davies' hat on the flag pole.
John Schaeffer was escorted to the office by Mr. Fleischer.
Fat Shade didn't chase girls.
The 11A boys broke off a leg of Mr. Luckenbill's antique card table.
Craig broke the bologna barrier in chemistry class.
Joyce Biehl wasn't called out of class.
Mr. Angstadt said, "Concentration is the art of learning."
Doris Baver fell asleep in assembly.
10A gave Mr. Keim a toothless comb for Christmas.
Certain 12C girls had to eat in the cafeteria for a month.
11A had a snowball battle in Mr. Hehr's room.
12C had a birthday party for Abe Lincoln.
Some 12V boys had a study hall in the lavatory.
Gibson, Keller, and Hummel took off from school to see Fleetwood Thanksgiving Assembly.
Carole Christman and Mary Gambler put a fish in someone's desk.
Hartranft had a yellow streak down the middle of his back.

SATELLITE

Events: 57-58

The year 1958 saw not only the commencement of the KAHS senior class but also the commencement of the world from earth travel to space travel. The USSR started the race with their first satellite, Sputnik I. Later they sent Sputnik II into orbit around the earth. This satellite had a passenger, a dog named Laika. The United States then entered the picture when the Army sent our first missile, the Jupiter C with the Explorer satellite on its nose. This act of space travel stirred the nation so that many high school students now tried to launch miniature missiles. The Navy, after many attempts, sent up a sleek, m-looking Vanguard missile. Another Explorer was sent into space, but it was lost after a few minutes. The Army again triumphed by sending another Explorer nestled in the nose of the Jupiter C missile. These events combined with other world-shaking events marked the graduation and commencement of the 1958 KAHS class.

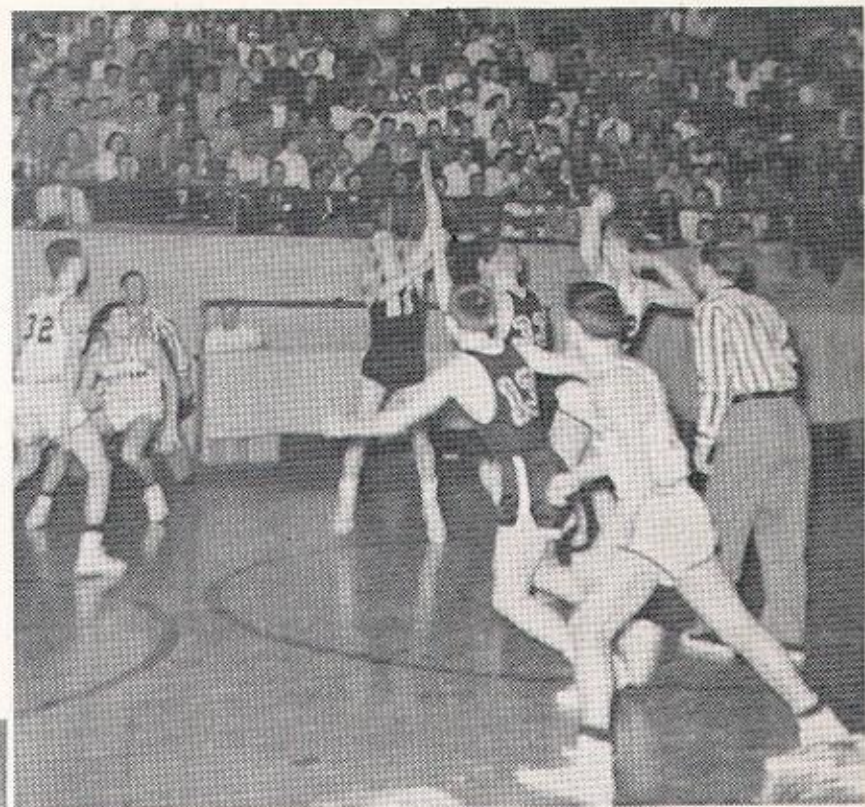

The Asiatic Flu hit the United States as a large-scale epidemic. For several weeks the KAHS struggled along with the lowest number of students in years. Other regions were hit harder, causing schools and plants to close. Although the flu attack was comparatively mild in this area, a large percentage of the school's population was stricken. Classrooms without a teacher and classrooms with less than ten students were not an uncommon sight. Fortunately, KAHS was one of the schools pulling through the frightening ordeal without any fatalities.

In February of 1958 Berks County was stunned by a nineteen inch snowfall. This was the heaviest snow recorded in Berks County history. Schools, stores, and factories were closed for days. Scores of people were stranded on highways and had to seek refuge in homes, churches, and hotels.

Streets were opened but did not remain clear because of the high winds, causing drifts as high as twelve to twenty feet. People in rural areas were stranded and some received food and medical attention by helicopters.

March, not to be outdone, came along the day before spring with a snowfall of sixteen to twenty-five inches. This storm was the worst for March and the worst in history. People were without electricity for days. The snow clung to wires breaking poles, ripping lines, and caving in house roofs. Some wires were laden with as much as ten inches of snow. This event was the most impressive of a chain of events which happened in the year of 1958.

Alma Mater

Kutztown Area High School,
Love you we always shall;
And when our thoughts seem blue,
We'll think of you;
Nor can we e'er forget
All that was done and said
Within your hallowed walls,
Sacred to us.

In turn of life's road
We'll meet with care and strife,
But to thy trust we'll cling
Taught in High School.
Your flag, marine and white,
We'll always keep in sight,
And, thus, from year to year,
We'll remember you.

Soccer

A successful season was brought to a close by the Kutztown Cougar soccer team, which told the story of five exciting wins, one heartbreaking loss, and six unforgettable ties.

Bill Fenstermacher was named for the second consecutive year to the Berks County All-Star Soccer Team and was the team's high scorer.

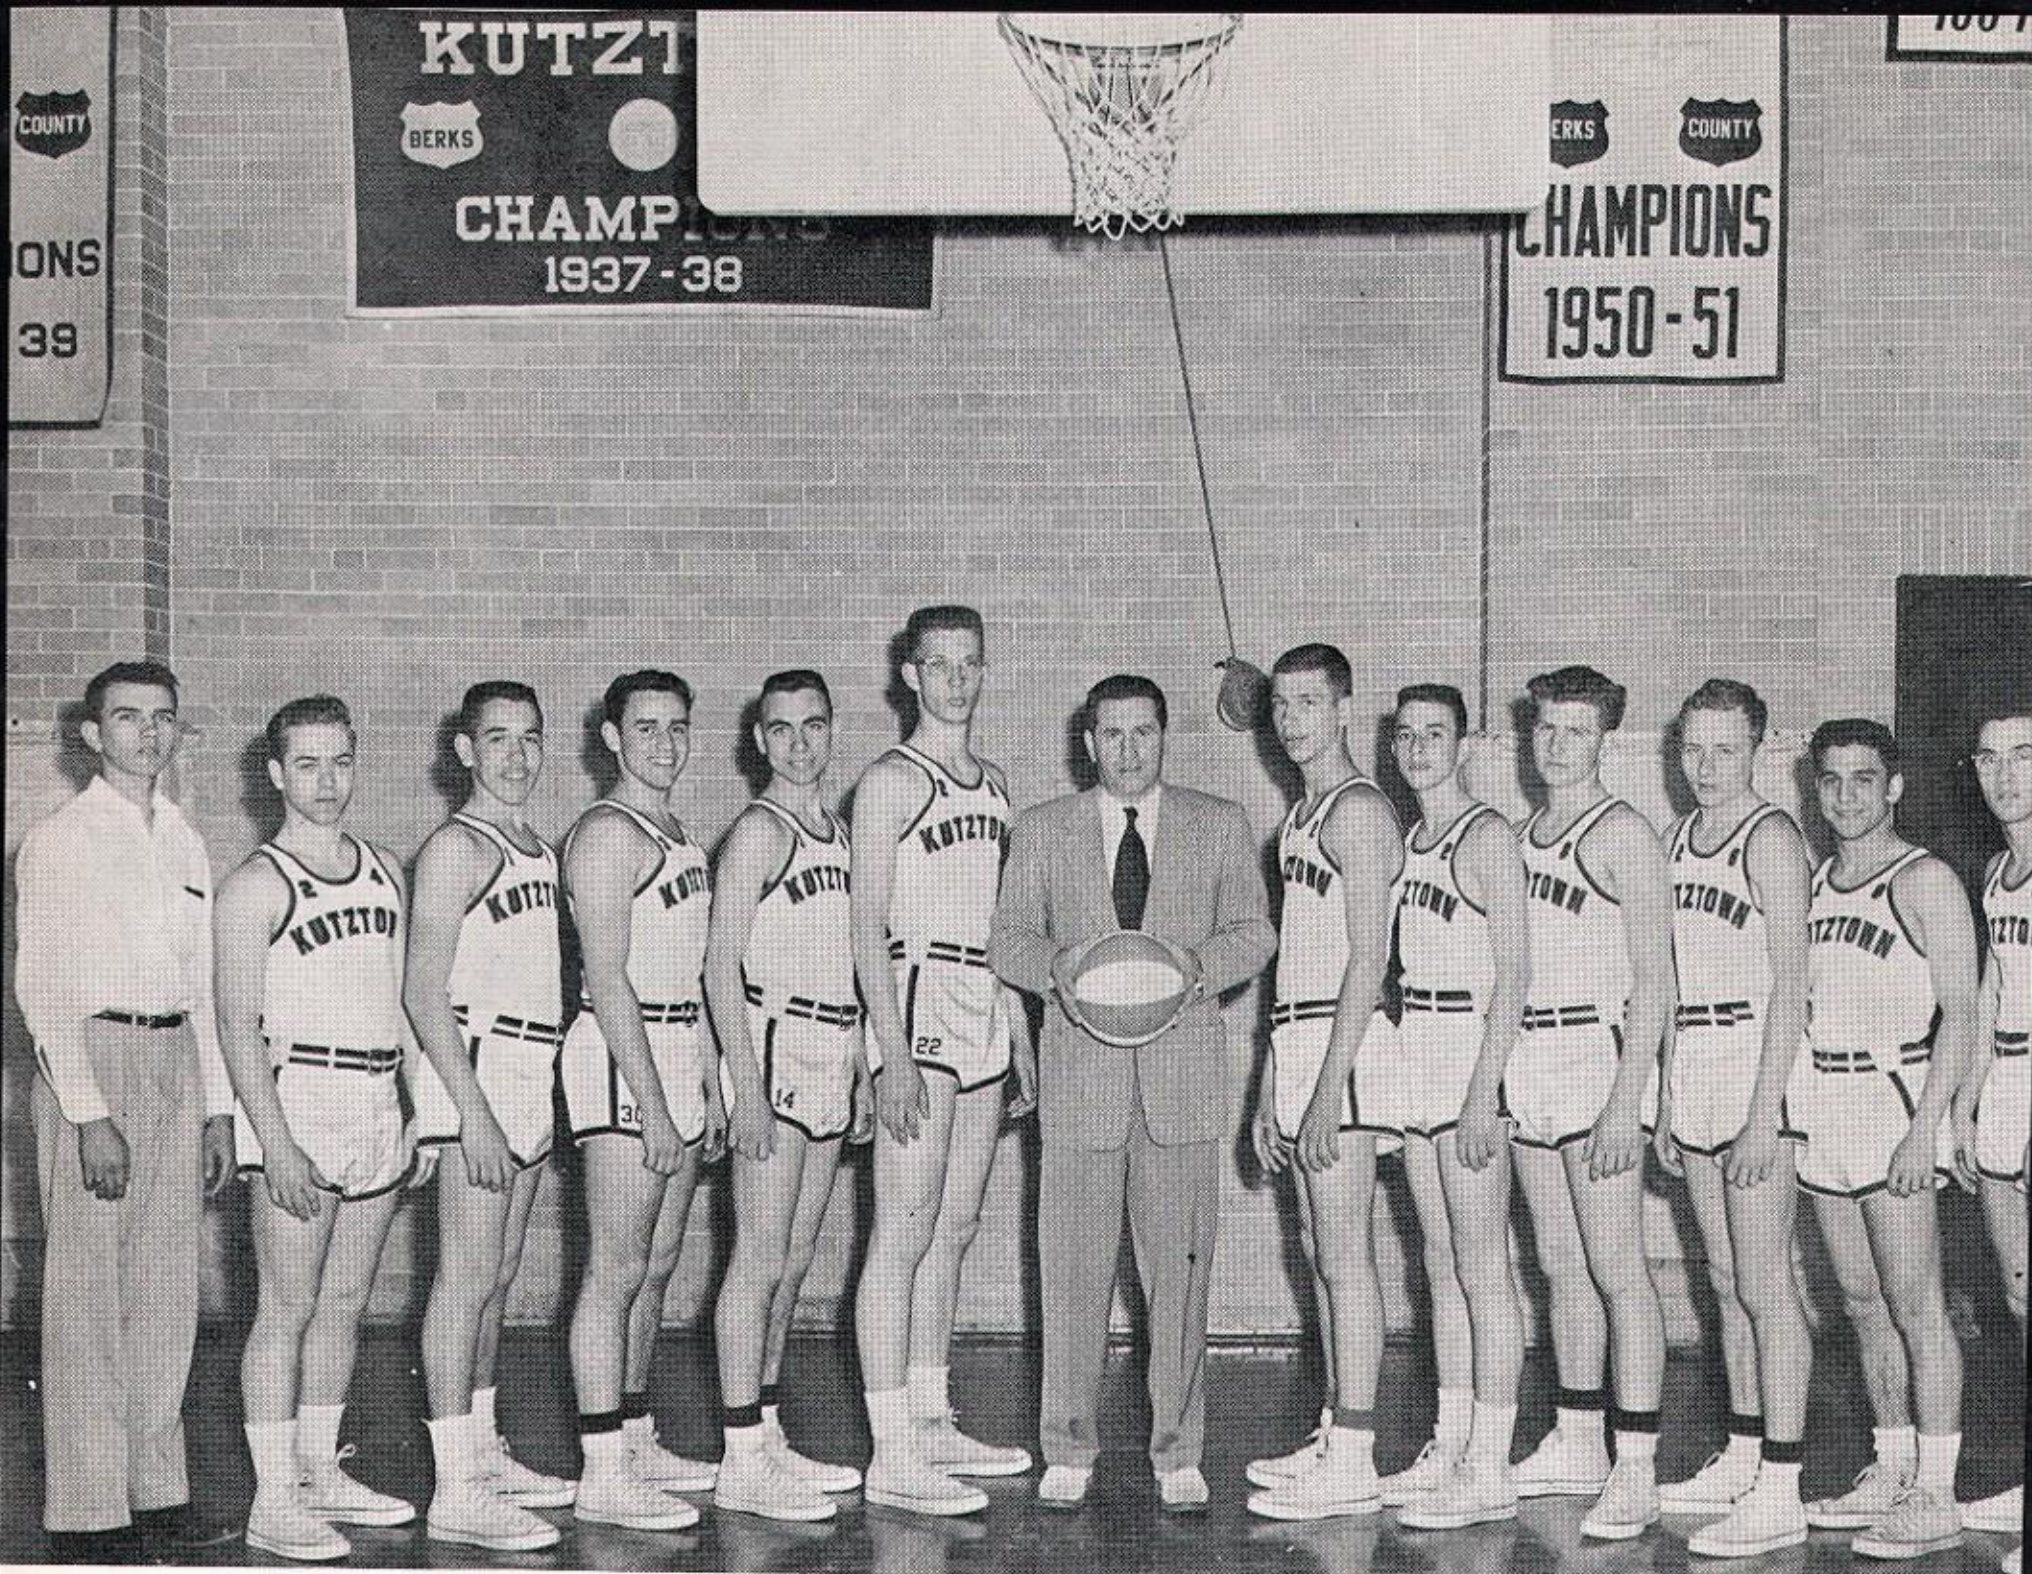

The Cougar soccer season reached its peak in the thrilling Daniel Boone game which ended in a breathless 2-2 tie.

Even though we tied Perry for second place Kutztown is still tops in our estimation.

Cougars Complete Winning Season

Coach Silan's Cougars successfully came shining through this year with twenty-three wins out of a total twenty-five games. They took the Berks County Championship and fought towards the District.

Now let's take a look at our boys:

Scheidt, the "All Star" who is known for his one hand pushups and layups, aids in the control of the board and the rebounds. Phil closed this season as high scorer—a measley 263 points—not bad.

Houck, a freshman, surprised everyone with an outstanding season. Besides helping control the backboard, he landed 156 buckets.

Risley, one of the Cougars' aggressive players, always plays a good game. A hard man to stop, he usually plays the board. Watch this boy at the foul line.

DeTurk, who started out this season slowly, rode high the last thirteen games. Smokey is also known for his layups contributing to his 154 points.

Saul, last but by no means least of the big five, calls the plays of the fighting Cougars. This little boy handles the ball quickly but with ease. Mouse is one of the trickiest players Kutztown has produced. Besides a sure shot at the foul line, he opens the eyes of spectators with his long set shots from way out yonder.

Well, that sounded fine, but let's not forget the subs. Without a strong bench, it is next to impossible to win a game. A hearty congratulations to all of you; it takes more than five to make a good team.

The Cougars are proud of their twenty straight victories.

The first defeat of the season was attributed to the fighting Mount Penn Mounts. The game ended with a hard 53-50 edge. That didn't stop the Cougars. The next game was for the County trophy, Cougars v.s. Wyomissing. Again the Cougars came roaring back with a 70-45 victory and the trophy to boot.

As usual Fleetwood was out to kill Kutztown, but the Tigers fought to no avail. In the last three seconds of the game Scheidt landed a basket, again giving the Cougars an exciting triumph, 49-47.

Establishing terrific attendance records, the Cougars drew hundreds of fans to their play-offs. A pat on the back to the team for a swell season of basketball and to all those who have contributed to the excellent sportsmanship practiced at the games this year.

Best of luck to the '59 Cougars.

Cheerleaders

"Come on Cougars" is a familiar chant echoed by our peppy cheerleaders, led by their captain Joyce Biehl, as they cheer the Cougars on. Clad in their navy jumpers and white blouses these girls have displayed much enthusiasm and ability in leading our faithful Cougar fans.

Their mascot, Cheekua (standing for Cheerleaders of Kutztown Area), has also played an important role as he sports the traditional blue and white of KAHS.

Baseball

Our KAHS ball club has a thirteen-game card this year including three exhibition games and ten league games. Our captain is Sterling Stump and field captain is David Mertz. Mace Arndt and Walter Risley display fine pitching ability. The leading hitters who show the way of the team's success are Stanley Saul, Walter Risley, and Gene Stump. Last year's team finished with a 3-7 league log. Mr. Silan reports, "We hope to have a better team this year."

A BASEBALL GAME

Saturday's finally rolled around,
the gang's out at the field;
the teams are matched extremely well,
but one is bound to yield.

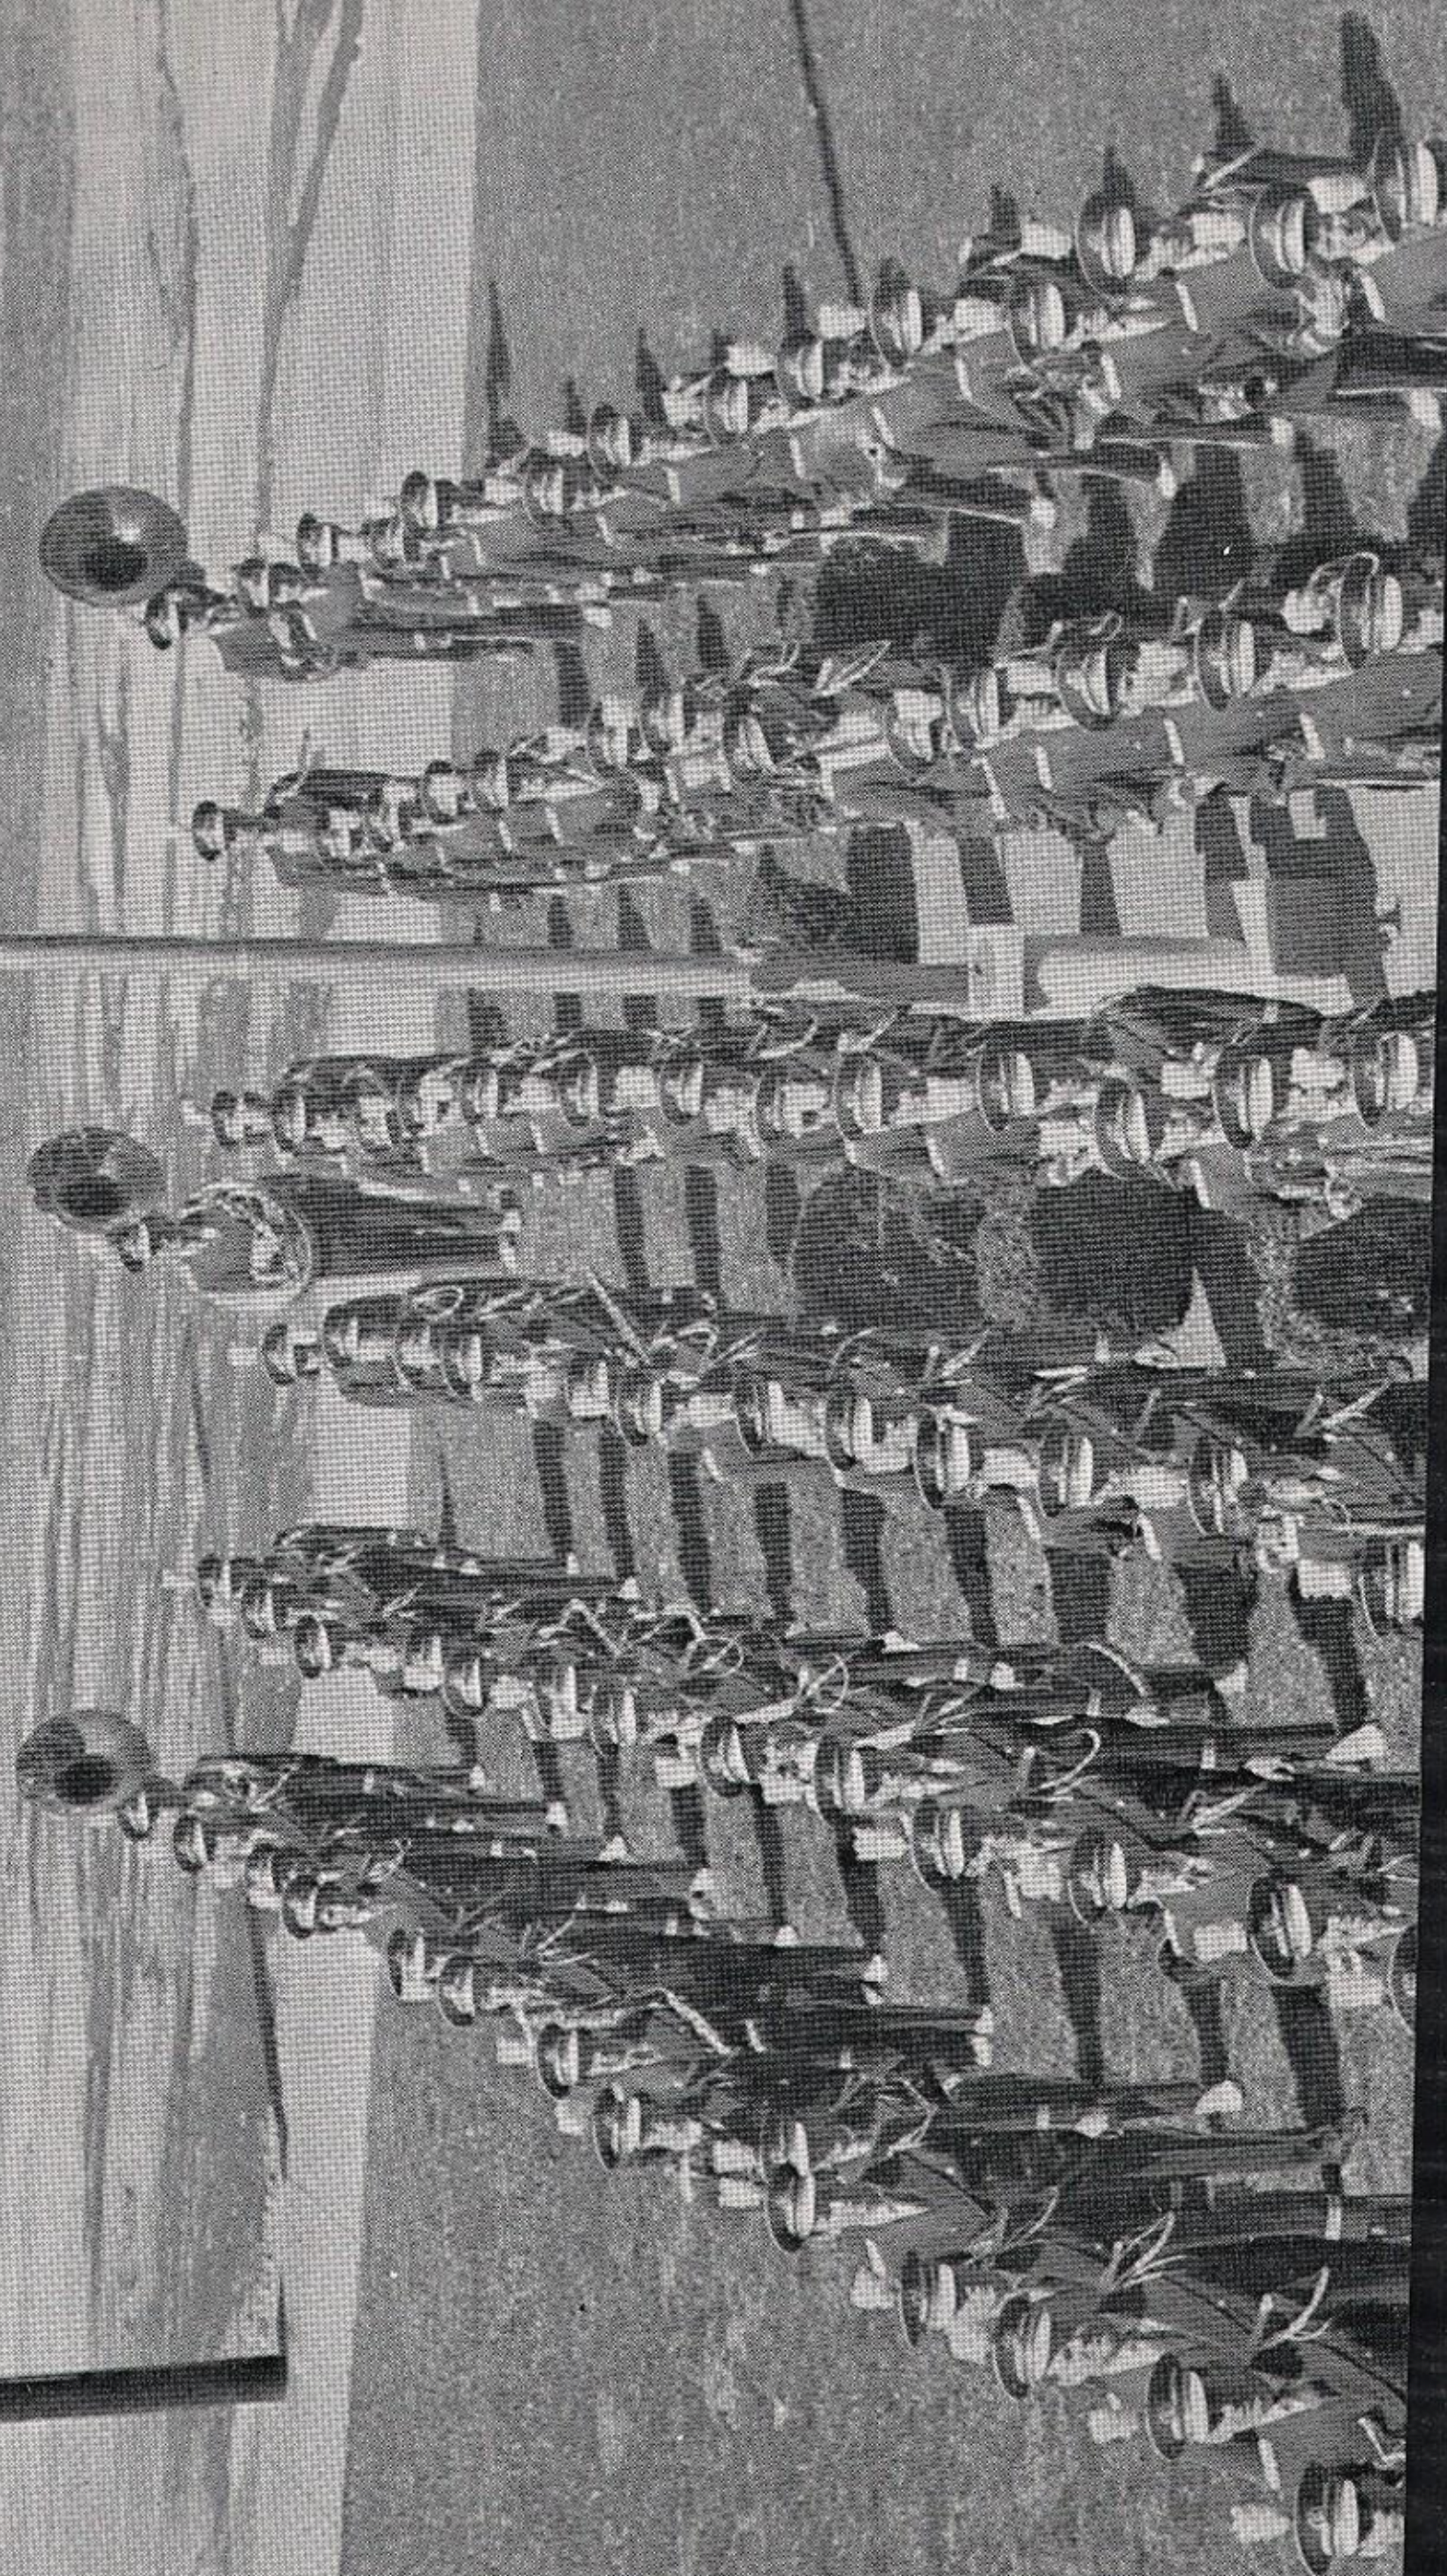

The players rush both back and forth.
Is this a game or bedlam?
The coach shouts, "That team looks rough,
but we can't give up, let's play them."

The pitcher throws the little sphere, hooks and drops and curves;
the players chase the little sphere,
it could get on one's nerves.

The seventh inning rolls around,
and Kutztown's going strong,
the men are playing hard;
Fleetwood won't last long.

Here goes Scholly's blazing curve;
the ump rings out, "Strike three"
the crowd shouts out, "hooray, hooray"
the Cougars, it's victory.

Kutztown Area High School Band

Band

Many long hours of practice were put forth by the band to prepare for the Fall Concert which featured Carlton Heckman, Robert Keller, David DeTurk, and the trombone trio of Stanley Saul, Gene Stump, and Jay Koenig. The Spring Concert, which featured Kerry DeLong, Larry Hassler, and Helen Kramer as soloists, was the second main event of the year. Playing for the class play, assemblies, and Commencement also occupied much of the organization's time. A few of the members also participated in County Band and Orchestra. To end a successful year, the band sponsored a picnic for all of the members.

Majorettes

Our attractive majorettes lead our high school band in parades. This year, as guests of the Allentown Fair Association, the girls demonstrated their ability to twirl and strut. To be a majorette the girls must be band members. Their hard work earns many favorable comments.

The chorus, composed of seventy members, is open by tryout to all senior high students. Meeting twice a week, this group of singers works on selections by Bach and contemporary composers. The major events this year were the Fall Concert, which featured Sara Ann Fox as soloist, and the Spring Concert which featured Michael Fuhrman as soloist. Various members also participated in county chorus. Serving as a choir for the Baccalaureate Service is the final function of the year for this organization.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y, sister club of the Hi-Y, also places high Christian standards as their goal. To live up to their purpose the club helped needy families, sold World-Service Candy, and sponsored a go-to-church Sunday. Talent shows, speakers, movies, and fashion shows occupied the club periods. The theme of the annual semi-formal dance was "Pink Angel". The decorations included a pink and white woven ceiling, angels, and glittering stars.

Boys' Athletic Association

Boys in senior high school, interested in athletics, join the Boys' Athletic Association. Promoting sports and good sportsmanship are the main purposes of this club. Selling Cougar jackets, helping needy families, and visiting various athletic events are some of the club's activities.

Girls' Athletic Association

The aim of the Girls' Athletic Association is to provide healthful recreation for girls. In order to belong to G.A.A., a member is required to participate in two or more of these sports: softball, volleyball, ping pong, badminton, and swimming. The activities of the club included selling "Cougar" buttons and pencils with the basketball schedule, sponsoring an annual dance, and purchasing a mascot for the cheerleaders.

Future Homemakers of America

The F.H.A. is a national organization composed of girls interested in home-making. The purpose is to prepare the girls for their job as future homemakers. Among the activities are the Mother-Daughter Banquet, the Snowball Frolic, and fun night. Under the supervision of Miss Shirley Labe and Mrs. James Trexler, this organization produces better future homemakers.

Future Business Leaders of America

The Future Business Leaders of America, Chapter 654, is affiliated with the National Organization, whose headquarters are located in Washington, D. C. The club sponsors projects, has varied programs including pertinent movies, speakers, office machine demonstrations, and social events. The highlights of this year's activities are the F.B.L.A. Dance and the Pennsylvania F.B.L.A. Convention at Galen Hall.

The debate this year centered on the objectives, the future, and our present policy toward foreign aid. "Should we give other countries foreign aid?" "What are the risks in giving aid to Communist dominated countries?"

These were questions raised by the Debate Team members at the tri-school debate on March 11, 12, and 13. The Debate Team is coached and advised by Mr. Davies.

Under the supervision of the Business Education Department, each qualified Senior Business student is assigned to serve as secretary to a faculty member of the junior and senior high school. In this capacity the student types, files, and performs clerical and secretarial duties for the teacher. This affords the business education student an opportunity to put into actual practice his skills in business work.

Yearbook Staff

Our yearbook is a product of the skills, ideas, and efforts of the staff. The staff members, chosen in their junior year, spent long hours after school and at home to make this book possible. This year we tried to include many outstanding events of our school term. The flu epidemic, the two blizzards, the songs that were popular, and the individual poems are a few of the new ideas. Our junior class assistants have proved their ableness for their work next year. Without the co-operation of the staff and our adviser's aid, we could not present this book.

Bolt and Bore

The Bolt and Bore Club provides for boys interested in shooting. The main object of the club is to teach boys how to shoot and handle firearms safely. The training program is designed to develop competitive shooters. Each year the four top marksmen represent the high school in local, state, and national championship matches. The members qualify for the National Rifle Association and also for Civilian Marksmanship ratings.

Christine Schucker, Diana DeRagon, David Adam, Allan Grim, Mr. Hehr, Sara Ann Beekey.

Yearbook Juniors

The juniors on the yearbook staff worked hard composing the senior write-ups and learning the general steps in planning a yearbook. They are looking forward to working on their own annual next year.

SENIORS IN PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB AND PROJECTOR CLUB

Ku-Hi-Nu

The task of the Ku-Hi-Nu staff is to prepare a monthly newspaper that contains all the interesting news of the school and to promote worthwhile school activities. This year the newspaper advanced from a mimeographed paper to a printed paper. The staff consists of senior high school students who are interested in journalism.

Fly Tying

The purpose of the Fly Tying Club is to create better fishermen. Learning the names of various fish and practicing the art of fly-tying are some of the opportunities the club offers to its members. Each spring the boys stock local streams. To close the season's activities, the club takes a two-day fishing trip to Sherman's Paradise.

Stage Crew

Left to Right: Donald Christ, Ernest Henry, Lamar Bailey, Daniel Smith.

Changing sets, checking lighting, and setting up risers for the band and chorus occupy our stage crew's time. They are busy behind the scenes during assembly programs and other activities taking place in the auditorium. At times it is even necessary for these handy-men to make or repaint scenery for various productions. Mr. Dreibelbis is the director of the stage crew.

Sound Crew

Under the direction of Mr. Keim, the sound crew takes care of any sound requirements for the school. Because of their efforts, classes, clubs, assemblies, and plays have been successful. Regulating tone qualities, placing microphones, and creating sound effects are duties of this crew. These boys have done much work worthy of recognition.
